SALE OF SEPARATE ARRACK SHOPS FOR 1905-06.

Notification No. 6211—4, dated 13th March 1905.

1. Notice is hereby given that the exclusive right of selling arrack in each of the separate shops specified in the appended schedule* for the twelve months beginning with 1st July 1905 and ending with 30th June 1906, will be put up to public auction at upset prices, by the respective Deputy Commissioners or by Revenue Assistant Commissioners or by Divisional Officers of the Excise Department or other Officers specially authorized by the Deputy Commissioners for the purpose, on the dates and at the places mentioned in the said schedule, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth. If the sales are not completed on abovenamed days, they will be continued on the next following days (close holidays excepted).
2. (a) Each bidder at the auction will deposit a sum of Rs. 60 for shops in the Kolar Gold Fields, Rs. 25 for those in the Mysore and Bangalore Cities and Rs. 10 for those in other places, or such other reasonable amount as may be fixed by the officer conducting the sale, previous to bidding. It will, if offered, be received at any time within three days prior to the date of sale, provided that the Government may, at any time, dispense with such initial deposit. The deposits made by unsuccessful bidders if not forfeited as hereinafter provided, will be returned at the close of the sale. The shops or group of shops will be knocked down to the approved highest bidder, subject to formal confirmation by the Deputy Commissioner, who will be at liberty to accept or reject any bid at his discretion without assigning reasons for the same. Such formal confirmation will, unless revised by Government for special reasons, be tantamount to an acceptance of the bid and will be necessary whether the sale be held by the Deputy Commissioner himself or by any other officer appointed by him. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents. Should there be no bid above the upset price, for any shop singly, the officer conducting the sale may, in consultation with the Excise Divisional Officer, if present, club together more than one shop or, if necessary, reserve shops for which there may be no bids, for disposal hereafter. He may, subject to formal confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner, sell the right in any particular case by means of tenders or by private negotiation. He may also lower the upset price at his discretion. The officer conducting the sale may at his discretion, and without assigning any reason, refuse to accept the bid of any person, on the ground that he has been convicted by a criminal court of such an offence, or has been guilty of such breach of the conditions of the license, or of a contract under the Excise Regulation or Opium Act, as to render him undesirable as a holder of a license, or on the ground that he is insolvent, or in order to prevent arrangements to the detriment of Government interests, or for any other valid reason.
- (b) No shop shall be knocked down in the name of more than one person or of more than one company or firm duly represented. The selling officer shall refuse to register as a purchaser any one in whose name the bidding has not proceeded.

* For schedule see supplement to the Mysore Gazette, dated 23rd March 1905.

3. (a) The successful bidder shall, on the exclusive privilege being knocked down to him, once, if so required by the selling officer, or otherwise at the close of the day's sale, further deposit a sum equal to one-twenty-fourth part of his bid for the year, that is to say, one-half the monthly rent unless the initial deposit equals or exceeds two months' rent. Should he fail to do so, the deposit, if any, made by him under clause 2 (a) will be forfeited, and the privilege will be sold again on the above conditions, or otherwise disposed of at his risk, as the Deputy Commissioner or selling officer may determine.

(b) The person to whom a shop or group of shops has been knocked down and who has made deposits as provided above, shall be required to leave his address with the selling officer, in order that the confirmation of the sale may be communicated to that address by a notice, and he shall, within seven days after the service of the said notice by its presentation to himself or to any adult male member of his family at the place of said address or by its being affixed thereto or by its forwardal duly registered by post, pay at the Taluk Treasury concerned, such further sum as, with the former deposits, will make up an aggregate sum equal to two months' rent, and execute at the same time before the Amildar the necessary engagements and take out the necessary licenses, as hereinafter set forth.

4. (a) The deposit made under the preceding para shall be either in cash or in Government of India Securities duly endorsed in favor of the Deputy Commissioner. Provided that in cases where the monthly rent exceeds Rs. 10 (in lieu of a deposit of two months' rent as above), the Deputy Commissioner may, in his discretion, allow any purchaser to deposit one month's rent as above, and to furnish approved personal security for an amount equal to four months' rent. In all cases where the monthly rent does not exceed Rs. 10, a cash deposit equal to two months' rent shall invariably be taken, and no personal security shall be accepted. If, on enquiry subsequent to sale, the purchaser shall be found to be a foreigner having no property in the Mysore State, or to be of doubtful solvency he may be required to deposit twice the prescribed sum or to get a surety or sureties, residents of and possessing property in the Mysore State, to execute a security bond for the due payment of all moneys that may become due by him under the terms of the contract.

(b) Should the initial deposit exceed the sum required to be deposited under clause 3 (b) or clause 4 (a), the excess will be refunded to the purchaser.

5. The purchaser shall execute an agreement in the prescribed form, binding himself and, unless exempted by the Deputy Commissioner by an order duly recorded, so much of his movable and immovable property as may be deemed sufficient by the Deputy Commissioner, to observe the conditions hereinafter set forth, as well as those specified in the license to be issued to him; and his surety or sureties, if any have been accepted, shall also execute in the prescribed form binding himself or themselves, and so much of his or their movable and immovable property as may be deemed sufficient by the Deputy Commissioner, and the bond so filed by the purchaser of the terms of the license shall also be registered at the Taluk Treasury. The license shall be stamped with the expense of the purchaser. The license shall also be registered at the Taluk Treasury when the amount secured is Rs. 100 and above.

6. If default is made in making the deposit or deposits or in executing the agreement or the security bond, if any, and in taking out licenses as aforesaid, the exclusive privilege shall be forthwith re-sold or otherwise disposed of by the Deputy Commissioner at the risk of the first purchaser, who shall forfeit to the Government any deposit or deposits already made by him, and shall further be liable to make good any loss caused by such re-sale or other disposal. He shall not be entitled to any gain accruing from the re-sale or other disposal, and he shall be debarred from bidding again for the same or for any other shop or group of shops. In the case of loss the forfeited deposits will be deducted from it and the remainder, if any, shall be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue. In the case of the purchaser's death after the confirmation of the sale, it will be binding on his heirs or assigns.

7. Re-sales or other disposal effected under para 6 will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who shall forfeit all again; and in the event of a loss caused by re-sale or other disposal he shall make good the deficiency between the total amount payable for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale or other disposal. In the latter case, the forfeited deposit shall be deducted from the loss arising from the re-sale or other disposal, and the remainder, if any, shall be recovered from the defaulter in the same manner as if it were an arrear of land revenue. Should, however, the forfeited deposit be greater than the loss by re-sale, the whole of such deposit shall be credited to Government.

The amount of rental, the consumption of each shop, etc., for several years past are specified in the appended schedule.

9. The license to be taken out under para 3 (b) above, shall be subject to the following conditions but nothing herein contained shall exempt the purchaser of the privilege from liability to the penalties prescribed for breaches of the conditions set forth below though a formal license may not have been issued:—

(1) The amount for which the privilege has been purchased shall, if it exceeds Rs. 12 per annum, be payable into the local Taluk Treasury in equal monthly instalments commencing from July 1905. But where it does not exceed Rs. 12 per annum, it shall be paid in not more than three equal quarterly instalments. Each instalment shall be regarded as the rent for the month or quarter in respect of which it is payable. The licensee is not required to make any additional payment on account of local cess. Each month's or quarter's rent shall be payable on or before the 20th of the same month, or before the end of the quarter for which the instalment is. As soon as the agreements and bonds have been executed, the Deputy Commissioner will issue a license in the prescribed form, assigning to the purchaser the exclusive privilege referred to therein, subject to the following conditions; but nothing herein contained shall exempt the purchaser of the privilege from liability to the penalties prescribed for breaches of the conditions set forth below, though a formal license may not have been issued to him:

(1) The exclusive privilege conferred by the license extends to the sale of Date, Palmyra, Coconut, Bagani and Dadasal toddy. But in tracts where both Date and Bagani toddy shops exist, the licensee of the Date Toddy shop shall not tap Bagani trees, and the licensee of the Bagani Toddy shop shall not tap Date trees but both licensees can tap any of the other palm trees named above.

If default is made, the Amildar may, with the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner, by record in writing, suspend or cancel the license, order the forfeiture of all deposits made by the defaulter, and proceed to re-sell or otherwise dispose of the shop or group of shops at the defaulter's risk (as soon after the last day of the month or quarter as may be possible), with effect from date of issue of license to the new purchaser, or from the date of other disposal. Provided, however, that instead of re-selling the same as above, the Deputy Commissioner may, in his discretion, direct the Amildar to issue licenses to sub-vendors or vendors under the defaulting licensee for rents, the aggregate of which is not less than the rent the defaulting licensee had agreed to pay. The officer who has power to suspend the license may, however, at his discretion, allow sales to continue pending re-sale or other disposal of the privilege.

NOTE.—The licensee of a Jatra shop shall pay the rent thereof in full before the Jatra begins.

Provided that no toddy shall be removed from the trees except during the currency of such license.

(6) (a) Persons applying for the issue of tree-tapping licenses will be responsible to Government for all sums payable as tree-tax on account of the trees licensed therein to be tapped and also for tree-rent in the case of trees on Government unoccupied lands and also for local cess thereon.

(b) On receipt of an application, the Inspector will at once take steps for the marking of the tree by an officer superior in rank to a Sub-Inspector, and for the timely issue of the license. Applicants for date trees shall get the requisite spaces on their stems prepared and point out to the marking officer, when required by the latter to do so, the trees applied for by them. Should they fail to do so, after reasonable notice, the tree-tax and tree-rent paid by them shall be liable to be forfeited at the Deputy Commissioner's discretion.

(7) No tree shall be tapped, nor shall toddy be drawn from any toddy tree, nor shall any pot be attached to any toddy tree until the tree has been marked by the proper officer. But the removal of leaves for the purpose of making incisions and the preparation of the spathes or incisions for the drawing of toddy is permitted as soon as the application in the prescribed form has been delivered to the Treasury concerned.

(8) (1) No tree shall be tapped for toddy without a license therefor to be obtained by payment of tree-tax at the following rates:—

9. The tree-tax shall be payable in the following instalments, unless the Excise Commissioner shall otherwise direct:—

Period within which license is applied for	Proportion of tree-tax to be paid at the time of application for license	Proportion of tree-tax to be paid on the first of the 3rd month
